NOTABLES

Presidential Classics HC/SWCID

Front — Amy Ragan, Julie Dudley, Felecia Ford, Kathi Wallis. Back — Tammy Peugh, Jana Higgins, Dr. Charles Hays, president, Vicky Baggett, and Pam Riddle

SWCID — Teresa Janice with Dr. Charles Hays, President.

PRESIDENTIAL CLASSICS are an array of talented, young ladies chosen to represent the Howard County Junior College District for the school year. Both SWCID and HC girls are chosen.

TO BECOME a Presidential Classic, the girls applying must meet certain requirements based on academic and extracurricular activities. The girls chosen must display poise, attractiveness, neatness, congenial personality, and be able to make presentations before a group.

THE GIRLS are offered a good scholarship. They are also furnished with two outfits to wear. They are afforded an opportunity to project their personalities in public appearances such as modeling and serving as official hostesses for the district.

PRESIDENTIAL CLASSICS selected for the 1983-84 school year are: Tammy Peugh, Amy Ragan, Pam Riddle, Vicky Baggett, Julie Dudley, Felecia Ford, and Kathi Wallis.
